

"Yes, we're Christian! No, we're not a cult!"

You are invited to a healing
Ecumenical Workshop

Saturday, July 12, 2014
At Arden Wood
445 Wawona Street
San Francisco, CA 94116
1:00 PM - 5:30PM

See attached Registration Form
Due July 5, 2014
For info (714) 337-0898

For Students of Christian Science who want to know:

- How does Mary Baker Eddy fit into the history of Christian healing?
- What's the value in learning about other faith traditions?
- How does an understanding of Christian history help address questions of heresy?
- What should or can we do to allay the fear of cult?
- How can we participate in the ecumenical dialogue?

This workshop is for you!

Given by
Brian Talcott, CSB
Ecumenical Team Member

Brian Talcott, is a teacher, practitioner and lecturer from Berkeley, CA. As a retired Protestant Air Force Chaplain and former Committee on Publication, Brian has extensive experience working with ecumenical and interfaith organizations. He represents The Mother Church at the National Council of Churches on educational issues. Brian has a Master's degree in Biblical Studies from Boston University, School of Theology.

The workshop is produced By The Committee on Publication and co-sponsored by Christian Science Churches and Societies in the San Francisco area.